Lot's Wife Becomes a Pillar of Salt

The cultural ideal unambiguously calls for the wife to show equal affection and sexuality to each of the brothers (and vice versa), but deviations from this ideal occur, especially when there is a sizable difference in age between the partners in the marriage.

When Brothers Share a Wife - Minnesota State University

The marriage is made in the union of the man and the woman: the two become one flesh. This is the definitive act of marriage. The marriage involves the parent-child relationship: "a man shall leave his father and his mother, and be joined to his wife." Marriage is defined in the context of and out of the family.
