Generators are great for short term power outages. They are relatively cheap and can be sourced from most home improvement stores. If the grid goes down for a few days after a major storm generators help to keep the food in the fridge from spoiling, keep the sump pump running and make sure a few lights stay on inside the home.

5 reasons why you shouldn't count on a generator when T

Sandbags have been used for a long time to keep us safe in dangerous situations. Safe from rising flood-waters and from incoming rounds in combat. I started thinking about sandbags in terms of home security and the dual purpose they fill struck me. In some places, the threats of floods from winter ...

There are fewer appropriate gas masks than you might expect. Among the few we trust with our lives, the Mestel SGE 400/3 is the best for most people at $175 (before filters). It's rated for Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical threats, while its $230 bigger brother, the CBRN-rated SGE 400/3 BB, can also handle particularly nasty threats like mustard gas.
